Epistle: A Reading from the Epistle of St. Paul to the Romans

(2:10-16): Brothers and Sisters, glory and honour and peace for everyone who does good, the Jew first and also the Greek. For God shows no partiality. All who have sinned apart from the law will also perish apart from the law, and all who have sinned under the law will be judged by the law. For it is not the hearers of the law who are righteous in God's sight, but the doers of the law who will be justified. When Gentiles, who do not possess the law, do instinctively what the law requires, these, though not having the law, are a law to themselves. They show that what the law requires is written on their hearts, to which their own conscience also bears witness; and their conflicting thoughts will accuse or perhaps excuse them on the day when, according to my gospel, God, through Jesus Christ, will judge the secret thoughts of all.

Gospel: Matthew 4:18-23

At that time, as Jesus walked by the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea—for they were fishermen. And he said to them, “Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men.” Immediately they left their nets and followed him. As he went from there, he saw two other brothers, James son of Zebedee and his brother John, in the boat with their father Zebedee, mending their nets, and he called them. Immediately they left the boat and their father, and followed him. Jesus went throughout Galilee, teaching in their synagogues and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom and curing every disease and every sickness among the people.

3. The Liturgy of the Eucharist (Liturgy of the Faithful)

2) Memorial

377

In the Anaphora, we commemorate the salvific work of the Most Holy Trinity: the Father so loved the world that “he gave his only-begotten Son;” the Son, fulfilling the will of the Father, “gave himself for the life of the world,” (emphasis added). He offers us true communion in himself through communion in his Body and Blood: “He took bread ... gave it to his holy disciples and apostles, saying: ‘Take, eat’ ... and likewise the chalice: ‘Drink of it, all of you.’” The words of Christ “This is my Body; this is my Blood,” pronounced at the Mystical Supper, show that in like manner, at each Divine Liturgy, Christ deigns to feed us with his Body and Blood. Through communion in his Body, Christ invites the Church, his Bride, to become one Body with him. He does so in order that she may enter the same unity with the Father that the Son has: “The glory that you have given me I have given to them, that they may be one even as we are one” ( Jn 17:22).

378

Offering us the gift of his Body and Blood, Christ leads us into the New Covenant, the alliance with God, in which the new commandment (see Jer 31:31-33) is written on the heart: “I give you a new commandment, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, you also should love one another” (Jn 13:34). In such love is the essence of eternal life, the essence of salvation, the essence of our deification. Human beings cannot achieve this of themselves, but it is possible for those who remain in Christ: “Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood abide in me, and I in them” (Jn 6:56).

Through the memorial of the Mystical Supper, the Church makes memorial also of “all that was done for us: the cross, the tomb, the resurrection on the third day, the Ascension into heaven, the sitting at the right hand, and the second and glorious coming.” Uniting with Christ, we become participants in all his salvific deeds — whether his suffering and death, or his Resurrection and glorification; his Pascha becomes ours, and we already take part in his glory. His glory will be fully manifested on the Last Day.
