Epistle: A reading from the Holy Apostle Paul to the Ephesians (2:14-22):

Brothers and Sisters, Christ is our peace; in his flesh he has made both groups into one and has broken down the dividing wall, that is, the hostility between us. He has abolished the law with its commandments and ordinances, that he might create in himself one new humanity in place of the two, thus making peace, and might reconcile both groups to God in one body through the cross, thus putting to death that hostility through it. So he came and proclaimed peace to you who were far off and peace to those who were near; for through him both of us have access in one Spirit to the Father. So then you are no longer strangers and aliens, but you are citizens with the saints and also members of the household of God, built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, with Christ Jesus himself as the cornerstone. In him the whole structure is joined together and grows into a holy temple in the Lord; in whom you also are built together spiritually into a dwelling place for God.

Gospel: Luke 8:41-56

At that time, there came a man named Jairus, a leader of the synagogue. He fell at Jesus' feet and begged him to come to his house, for he had an only daughter, about twelve years old, who was dying. As he went, the crowds pressed in on him. Now there was a woman who had been suffering from haemorrhages for twelve years; and though she had spent all she had on physicians, no one could cure her. She came up behind him and touched the fringe of his clothes, and immediately her haemorrhage stopped. Then Jesus asked, "Who touched me?" When all denied it, Peter and those who were with him said, "Master, the crowds surround you and press in on you." But Jesus said, "Someone touched me; for I noticed that power had gone out from me." When the woman saw that she could not remain hidden, she came trembling; and falling down before him, she declared in the presence of all the people why she had touched him, and how she had been immediately healed. He said to her, "Daughter, your faith has made you well; go in peace." While he was still speaking, someone came from the leader's house to say, "Your daughter is dead; do not trouble the teacher any longer." When Jesus heard this, he replied, "Do not fear. Only believe, and she will be saved." When he came to the house, he did not allow anyone to enter with him, except Peter, John, and James, and the child's father and mother. They were all weeping and wailing for her; but he said, "Do not weep; for she is not dead, but sleeping." And they laughed at him, knowing that she was dead. But he took her by the hand and called out, "Child, get up!" Her spirit returned, and she got up at once. Then he directed them to give her something to eat. Her parents were astounded; but he ordered them to tell no one what had happened.

Virtues as Indications of Divinization

The apostle Paul teaches that the Gospel is the power of God granted to one who believes; the power by which the righteous one lives (see Rom1:16-17). The apostle Paul calls this power of God a “virtue,” pointing to the interior possibilities of a person renewed in Christ and his or her capacity for good (see Phil 4:8-9). Through virtue, a person becomes capable of living and acting in Christ.

832

The Holy Fathers believed that virtue is a capacity placed in the human soul. It is a source of one’s natural strengths, which develop and are perfected in cooperation with God’s grace. Virtue is the power and capacity of a person, created in God’s image, to become like God and attain deification.

Pastoral Ministry and Sacraments:

Reconciliation: on Sundays and Holy Days: before Divine

Liturgies and other days, by appointment.

Holy Communion: for the sick, by appointment, any time.

Baptisms: by appointment.

Marriages: six months' notice should be given to the parish priest, and he should be contacted before any other arrangements are made.

Funerals and Memorials: by appointment.

Anointing of the Sick (Holy Unction): Those anticipating surgery, hospitalization or treatments and who would like to receive anointing or to meet with parish priest, please call or email Fr. Andrzej in advance to arrange a time and a day.

Basic Guidelines for Reception of Holy Communion:

1. You are a member of the Catholic Church (Orthodox faithful are welcome to receive Holy Communion); 2) You have participated in the Sacrament of Confession at least during the Easter or Christmas seasons this past year if not more frequently; 3) You attend Divine Services regularly; 4) Your lifestyle is consistent with the teaching of the Catholic Church; 5) You have kept the Liturgical fast – no food at least one hour prior to the Divine Liturgy (water and medicine does not break the fast). 6) You have been in church from the beginning of the service, or at least heard the Gospel. 7) To the best of your ability, you are in the state of Grace.

If for any of these or other reasons you cannot receive Holy Communion, you are very welcome to come for a blessing. Please indicate to the priest that you would like to receive his blessing.

Pope on All Saints Day: 'The Saints Love & Understand Us; They Want Us to Be Happy Like Them, Knowing What the True Good Is'

The saints are not distant, but love and understand us. They are happy and want to help us to be happy with them in Paradise. Pope Francis underscored this in his Angelus Address on All Saints Day, Nov. 1, 2018, to some 15,000 faithful gathered in a rainy St. Peter's Square.

Saints Understand and Love Us, Want to Help Us

We are united with all the Saints, not only to those most noted in the calendar, the Pope said, but also those “next door,” our relatives and acquaintances too. Today is a family feast, he underscored, adding: “The Saints are close to us, rather, they are our truest brothers and sisters.”

“They understand us, they love us, they know what our true good is; they help us and wait for us. They are happy and want us to be happy with them in Paradise,” Pope Francis stressed.

They therefore, he pointed out, invite us to follow the way of happiness, indicated in today’s Gospel, namely the Beatitudes, Jesus’ commands. The Lord, the Jesuit Pope stressed, “asks for all,” but “what He offers is true life, the happiness for which we were created”

No ‘Half Measures’ of Holiness. Let Saints Challenge Us

In short, Francis said: “Either holiness or nothing! It does us good to let the Saints challenge us, who didn’t have half measures, and “cheer” for us because we choose God, humility, meekness, mercy, purity, because we are passionate about Heaven rather than the earth.”

Today, the Pope said, “these brothers and sisters of ours don’t ask us to hear again a beautiful Gospel,” but to put it into practice, to undertake the way of the Beatitudes.

Not About Doing Extraordinary Things

“It’s not about doing extraordinary things, but about following every day this way that leads us to Heaven, as a family, at home,” he said. Therefore, he reminded that today we glimpse toward our future and celebrate that for which we were born: “We were born never to die again; we were born to enjoy the happiness of God!”

The Lord, the Pontiff underscored, encourages us and to each who follows the recommendations of the Beatitudes, He says: ‘Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in Heaven.’”

Our Beloved Deceased Above With Mary & Celestial Family

“May the Mother of God, Queen of Saints, help us to follow with determination the way of holiness,” Pope Francis said, adding: “May She, who is the Gate of Heaven, introduce our dear deceased ones into the celestial family.” *** On ZENIT’s Web page
