Troparion, Tone 2: When You went down to death, O Life Immortal,

* You struck Hades dead with the blazing light of Your divinity. * When You raised the dead from the nether world, * all the powers of heaven cried out: * “O Giver of Life, Christ our God, glory be to You!”

Troparion, Tone 8: O saints, your message has spread throughout the world * for receiving the Spirit in tongues of fire you torched the idols’ deceit. * With the net of your words you caught those who were lost and brought them to faith. * Therefore the heavens declare your glory * and the firmament which God created adds its voice * and we with them cry out feasting your memory. * Save us all, O God, by the prayer of your twelve apostles.

Kontakion, Tone 2: You rose from the tomb, O almighty Saviour; * and Hades, seeing this wonder, was stricken with fear; and the dead arose. * Creation saw and rejoices with You, and Adam exults. * And the world, my Saviour, sings Your praises for ever.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Spirit.

Kontakion, Tone 2: Christ the Rock today valiantly glorifies the rock of faith, * the most splendid of the disciples, along with Paul and the council of the twelve. * As we celebrate their memory with faith we glorify the One who glorified them.

Now and for ever and ever. Amen.

Theotokion, Tone 2: The tomb and death could not hold the Mother of God, * unceasing in her intercession and an unfailing hope of patronage, * for as the Mother of Life she was transferred to life * by Him Who had dwelt in her ever-virgin womb.

Prokeimenon, Tone 2: The Lord is my strength and my song of praise, and He has become my salvation.

verse: The Lord has indeed chastised me, but He has not delivered me to death.

Prokeimenon, Tone 8: Their utterance has gone forth into all the earth, and their word unto the ends of the world.

verse: The heavens tell the glory of God, and the firmament declares the work of His hands.

Epistle: Romans 5:1-10

Brothers and Sisters, since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have obtained access to this grace in which we stand; and we boast in our hope of sharing the glory of God. And not only that, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us. For while we were still weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. Indeed, rarely will anyone die for a righteous person— though perhaps for a good person someone might actually dare to die. But God proves his love for us in that while we still were sinners Christ died for us. Much more surely then, now that we have been justified by his blood, will we be saved through him from the wrath of God. For if while we were enemies, we were reconciled to God through the death of his Son, much more surely, having been reconciled, will we be saved by his life.

Alleluia, Tone 2: The Lord will hear you in the day of tribulation; the name of the God of Jacob will shield you.

verse: Lord, grant victory to the king and hear us in the day that we shall call upon You.

verse: The heavens shall confess our wonders, O Lord, and Your truth in the church of the saints.

verse: God is glorified in the assembly of the saints.

Gospel: Matthew 6:22-33

The Lord said to his disciples, “The eye is the lamp of the body. So, if your eye is healthy, your whole body will be full of light; but if your eye is unhealthy, your whole body will be full of darkness. If then the light in you is darkness, how great is the darkness! “No one can serve two masters; for a slave will either hate the one and love the other, or be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and wealth. “Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat or what you will drink, or about your body, what you will wear. Is not life more than food, and the body more than clothing? Look at the birds of the air; they neither sow nor reap nor gather into barns, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are you not of more value than they? And can any of you by worrying add a single hour to your span of life? And why do you worry about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they neither toil nor spin, yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not clothed like one of these. But if God so clothes the grass of the field, which is alive today and tomorrow is thrown into the oven, will he not much more clothe you—you of little faith? Therefore do not worry, saying, ‘What will we eat?’ or ‘What will we drink?’ or ‘What will we wear?’ For it is the Gentiles who strive for all these things; and indeed your heavenly Father knows that you need all these things. But strive first for the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well.”

Communion Hymn Praise the Lord from the heavens; * praise Him in the highest.  Their utterance has gone forth into all the earth, * and their word unto the ends of the world. * Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

* ANNOUNCEMENTS ****

Catechism of the Ukrainian Catholic Church – “Christ Our Pascha” #33-34 p. 20-21

Apostolic Tradition

33

Christ chooses his apostles and sends them to preach the Word: “Go therefore and make disciples of all nations ... teaching them to obey everything that I have commanded you” (Mt 28:19-20). Having received this commission at Christ’s Ascension and then receiving the power of the Holy Spirit on the day of Pentecost, the apostles began to preach Christ and witness to him: “This Jesus God raised up, and of that all of us are witnesses” (Acts 2:32). Following the example of Christ the Teacher, the apostles transmit his Gospel to their own disciples through the living word of preaching, calling upon all to preserve it: “Guard the good treasure entrusted to you, with the help of the Holy Spirit living in us” (2 Tm 1:14).

34

The apostles have entrusted us with “all that Jesus did and taught from the beginning” (Acts 1:1). The holy apostle Paul testifies to this when he writes to the faithful in Thessalonica: “So then, brothers and sisters, stand firm and hold fast to the traditions which you were taught by us, either by word of mouth or by letter” (2 Thes. 2:15). The Church has always called upon Christians to remain faithful to the teachings of the apostles, and thus, she has preserved the immutability of Holy Tradition, and by this token, her faithfulness to Jesus Christ. The essence of Tradition consists in faithfully following Christ within the Church for all generations, until the end of time. Holy Tradition is unchangeable because its content is Jesus Christ, who is the same yesterday and today and forever (see Heb 13:8).

Anointing of the Sick (Holy Unction): Those anticipating surgery, hospitalization or treatments and who would like to receive anointing or to meet with parish priest, please call or email Fr. Andrzej in advance to arrange a time and a day.

Basic Guidelines for Reception of Holy Communion:

You are a member of the Catholic Church (Orthodox faithful are welcome to receive Holy Communion); 2) You have participated in the Sacrament of Confession at least during the Easter or Christmas seasons this past year if not more frequently; 3) You attend Divine Services regularly; 4) Your lifestyle is consistent with the teaching of the Catholic Church; 5) You have kept the Liturgical fast – no food at least one hour prior to the Divine Liturgy (water and medicine does not break the fast). 6) You have been in church from the beginning of the service, or at least heard the Gospel. 7) To the best of your ability, you are in the state of Grace.

If for any of these or other reasons you cannot receive Holy Communion, you are very welcome to come for a blessing. Please indicate to the priest that you would like to receive his blessing.

CAMP ST. VOLODYMYR -- August 18-25, 2019

If you are between the ages of 7-15 this is a summer must do! Camp St. Volodymyr is a wonderful opportunity to experience God through nature, in a catechetical program, liturgical services and the companionship of others. Campers will learn about the Ukrainian culture and language along with games, sports, arts & crafts, campfires, water activities and much more!

Come join us in celebrating our 35th year of camp for children in our Eparchy! Book by July 4 to save $50 on your registration. Register online using Eventbrite. Search "Camp St. Volodymyr BC 2019."

HELP NEEDED at CAMP ST. VOLODYMYR:

We are currently in need of a camp nurse, kitchen coordinator and part/day time help in the kitchen. If you are interested or know of anyone who may be able to fulfill these roles please contact Jennifer Caldwell @ 604.220.0584 or jennsawka@hotmail.com. Visit our website via www.nweparchy.ca

Sr. Sofia Lebedovych, SSMI
Superior General
Sisters Servants of Mary Immaculate
Rome, Italia

New Westminster, 28 June 2019

Glory to Jesus Christ!

Dear Mother General,

It is a great blessing for our Eparchy of New Westminster to have had Sisters Servants of Mary Immaculate serving from its very beginning 45 years ago. In fact a predecessor of yours, Sister Jerome Chimy of blessed memory was one of the first Sisters to officially serve in our Eparchy after its establishment in 1974. Since that time, we have always had the presence of Sisters Servants in our Eparchy. They have dedicated thousands of hours of their time to the various ministries entrusted to them, including youth ministry, catechism, marriage preparation, our Eparchial summer youth camp, home visits, music ministry and the list goes on.

To assist you in putting an iconostasis in the chapel of the Generalate of the SSMIs in Rome, we have made a special collection in all of our parishes to honour Blessed Josaphata and all of the Sisters who have served in British Columbia. We were able to raise $4,195.00 Canadian Dollars for this project that we are pleased to present to you during your visit to our Eparchy.

Please extend our prayerful best wishes to all of the Sisters with you in Rome and assure them of our blessings and prayers and ask that our lay-faithful, clergy and religious be remembered in your prayers, I remain,

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+Ken

Bishop of New Westminster
